Helping Nitin Save Smarter

A pivot-table & chart driven analysis of monthly & 6-month expenses to boost savings for a new scooter

Name: L Vaishnavi

Project on: Excel

Batch: D6599

BACKGROUND

The Problem Statement

Q. Why is Nitin unable to save money each month?

Nitin is a Graphic Designer earning ₹15,000/month.

He is planning to buy a scooter for his daily office commute. But for the last couple of months, he hasn't been able to save anything.

His friend Ayush suggested he figure out where most of the money goes, and cut down that expense.

Our task: analyse Nitin's June spending and his last 6 months of spending using pivot tables & charts, and recommend how he can increase his savings.

₹15,000 / ₹13,560

Monthly income vs June spend

₹1,440 (9.6%)

Actually saved in June

2 Parts of Analysis

June (single month) + last 6 months

Goal: find where the money goes, then cut the least essential expenses to grow savings.

Expense by Category

Q. How much is spent for each category? (Pivot Table)

| Category | Sum of Expense (INR) |
|---|---|
| Grocery | 4690 |

Essential vs Less Essential & Recommendations

Q. How can Nitin increase his savings?

Essential

- Grocery
- Ticket & Bills (rent-like, gas, electricity)
- Doctor & Medicine

Less Essential

- Shopping (clothes, shoes)
- Entertainment (trips, movies)
- Food (online orders, dining out)

Recommendations

Cap discretionary Shopping: Budget Shopping instead of buying on impulse; skip a month if needed

Plan big trips in advance: Save separately for outings like the ₹7,500 North Bengal trip

Cut food orders & dining out: 4+ online orders a month add up — cook more, order less

Budget Groceries with a list: Grocery is the #1 cost every month — buy in bulk, avoid waste

Potential Result

₹3,000–4,000

realistic monthly savings if less-essential spending is trimmed
